Event Featured Brooks Brothers' Stylist Stacy Wallace-Albert

On Tuesday, September 27th, more than 65 guests gathered at Brooks Brothers' Michigan Avenue location to celebrate the arrival of the label's fall women's collection, designed by Brooks Brothers creative director Zac Posen. The label's principal women's stylist and former Chicagoan, Stacy Wallace-Albert, was on-hand to speak with guests about the fall collection and offer styling tips featuring several of the season's new pieces.

Hosted by Woman's Board members Jennifer Dunne, Stuart Mesires and Woman's Board President, Joan Moore, the event generated nearly $30,000 in sales and a $5,000 donation to the Northwestern Memorial Patient and Family Assistance Fund.

Joan Moore commented, "The evening was a perfectly stylish way to kick-off fall, and the funds raised will go a long way to help patients and families in need at Northwestern Memorial Hospital. The Woman's Board of Northwestern Memorial Hospital thanks Brooks Brothers for their generous donation."
